

Fontaines D.C. - Roman Holiday

Baby, come on get stoned, get stoned
Get inside it, inside it, inside it, inside
Get along, get along, get alone, get alone
_____ about the week on the Dalymount _____, yeah
Baby, come on 'fore the going gets gone
Heard you _____ to the Major
Won't be long
Well, I wish upon a wedding for a _____ in the star
When they knock for ya don't forget who you are
Skinty Fia
Baby, come on whose side are you on?
I don't wanna see the queen
I already _____ her _____
While they're snuffing out hopes and they're blotting out suns
They claim to know the form in which _____ comes Baby come on _____ high heels on
It's the body is cold
It's the course is _____
What artless living all this soft pain thrills
What calamities usher all our brilliance to the hills!
Can you feel it?
[Refrain]
Was it the _____ or the moment that stoned ye?
Baby come on get the hourglass on
I will dart into _____, no I won't be long
If the talk's getting cold, we'll be chancing _____
Well, you know what I'm saying
Our day will come
Can you feel it?
Won't be long
Can you feel it?

Vocabulary

- to get stoned
- to get your high heels on
- hourglass on
- our day will come
- to snuff out
- the course is run
- whose side are you on?
- to wish upon
- before the going gets gone
- to blot out
- to dart into
- to get alone
- to get along

Choose True or False

1. Get stoned means to get high, drunk, or experience a strong euphoric effect.

True / False

2. Get along means to fight or argue constantly with someone.

True / False

3. Get alone means to make peace between two people.

True / False

4. Dart into means to hesitate before entering a place.

True / False

5. Snuff out means to extinguish something literally, or figuratively to end a life, hope, or opportunity.

True / False

6. Blot out can mean to carefully copy something onto paper.

True / False

7. Wish upon is when you make a wish on a star, special event, or chance

True / False

8. Before the going gets gone means to act before it's too late.

True / False

9. 'Whose side are you on?' asks which team or opinion someone supports.

True / False

10. 'Hourglass on' literally means to wear an hourglass-shaped accessory

True / False

11. Hourglass on can metaphorically mean to start counting down or begin a process.

True / False

12. Our day will come means that eventually you will succeed or have your moment.

True / False

13. Get your high heels on literally refers to putting on shoes, but figuratively it can mean "get ready" or "prepare yourself."

True / False

14. The course is run means that a process or journey has been completed; the matter is finished.

True / False

15. Get stoned literally means to be attacked or punished by having stones thrown at you.

True / False

Choose the sentence where the expression is used correctly

1. Get stoned

- a) He decided to get stoned after a stressful week at work.
- b) I got stoned by carefully folding the laundry.
- c) She got stoned on the sofa while reading a book.

2. Get along

- a) I get along well with my new colleagues at the office so we quarrel every week.
- b) They rarely get along and always argue at parties.
- c) He tried to get along the stairs slowly.

3. Get alone

- a) He gets alone well with his family.
- b) I need some time to get alone and think.
- c) She always gets alone her friends during the game.

4. Dart into

- a) They darted into eating lunch for hours.
- b) She darted into the room at a calm pace.
- c) He darted into a long conversation with his neighbor.

5. Snuff out

- a) She snuffed out her plans to go on vacation.
- b) The firemen snuffed out the house in minutes.
- c) He snuffed out his coffee slowly.

6. Blot out

- a) He blotted out the sandwich on the table.
- b) She blotted out her new painting carefully.
- c) Dark clouds blotted out the sun.

7. Wish upon

- a) They wished upon the table for a good dinner because they'd been hungry for the whole day.
- b) She wished upon a coin and threw it into the fountain, hoping to come back again.
- c) He wished upon the coffee cup to be full and hot.

8. Before the going gets gone

- a) I will walk slowly before the going gets gone.
- b) Let's finish this project before the going gets gone.
- c) She bought shoes after the going gets gone.

9. Whose side are you on?

- a) My friend asked, 'Whose side are you on election?'
- b) She whispered, "Whose side you are on?"
- c) In the debate, the teacher asked, "Whose side are you on?"

10. Hourglass on

- a) Let's put the hourglass on and start the test.
- b) I put the hourglass on my wrist like a watch.
- c) She wore the hourglass on the table as decoration.

11. Our day will come

- a) Our day will come, so let's do everything we wish recklessly.
- b) Don't worry, our day will come.
- c) They shouted, "Our day will come!" while painting the wall.

12. Get your high heels on

- a) Come on, get your high heels on, the party starts soon!
- b) She gets her high heels on the bag for fun.
- c) I get my high heels on the shelf every morning.

13. The course is run

- a) The course is run, all participants have already received their certificates about completion.
- b) The course is run annually in June.
- c) The course is run by experienced instructors.

Speaking

1. Your friend has had a tough week and wants to relax a little. You've found out that they get stoned every Friday. What is your reaction?
2. You started a new job, and your colleagues have very different personalities. What can you do to get along with them and feel like part of the team?
3. You feel overwhelmed by noise and people around you. How can you arrange some time to get alone and recharge your energy?
4. You're running late for an important meeting, and the taxi has arrived. How would you dart into the car quickly without losing a minute, and what would you say to the driver?
5. You're holding a party, your friends are hanging out and having fun, but one person is in a bad mood. How can you prevent their negativity from snuffing out everyone else's enthusiasm?
6. After an argument with a friend, it's hard to remember the good moments. How can you blot out negative thoughts and focus on the positive?
7. You see a shooting star in the night sky. What would you wish upon it if you could make one important wish for yourself?
8. There's a one-day exhibition in your city, and tickets are running out. What should you do before the going gets gone so you don't miss it?
9. Your friends are arguing about which movie to watch together, either horror or comedy. How would you honestly answer the question: whose side are you on if you dislike both variants?
10. You are starting a new project and want to divide time for each task. How can you use the idea of hourglass on to track progress and avoid procrastination?
11. You've been looking for a new job for a while. How can you motivate yourself that your day will come?
12. You have an important party in an hour, and you've accidentally burnt the dress while ironing. How will you get your high heels on and get prepared quickly and stylishly?
13. You've just started a very expensive art course, but at the beginning you realize it's not what you expected. How to deal if the course is running in a full swing?