PART 3 Questions 11-15

For each question, choose the correct answer.

My first safari by Jeremy Sanders

I had spent all night on a flight to Africa and I must admit I felt exhausted once I landed. The only thing that made me feel better was a smiling, tanned pilot who took us quickly through Customs. Life suddenly became a lot better when I realised that we wouldn't have to wait at all to catch our next flight. We were just about to board a much smaller plane this time, for our first African safari.

When you are on a short break every hour matters, so the fact that we were short-cutting the queues at Customs meant that we could be heading off to the countryside much sooner than anyone had expected.

Our second flight, the one from Nairobi, lasted less than an hour but was the most fascinating one I had ever been on. It took us out of the city until we reached Mount Kenya. There the view suddenly changed. Our pilot started flying lower, pointing out to the elephants, giraffes, gazelles and even rhinos as they ran beneath us. We did several rounds before reaching our final destination, Loisaba Lodge, where we landed.

Loisaba Wilderness is a 150sq km, privately-managed wildlife area of land kept in its natural state, especially for wild animals to live in and be protected. It is much larger than many of Kenya's parks and a safe place for more than 250 species of birds and 50 species of mammals, including elephants. The wildlife here, unlike in the game parks, is still wild, and so, far more exciting to see than bored lions lying in front of tourists.

We were soon taken to our rooms, located high up on a hill. From each of the seven rooms guests can walk out on to their private balcony to enjoy the wildly dramatic view - 61,000 acres of savannah and rocky area lie beneath you. A bit further away, you can observe, what I believe was the highlight of the visit, a watering hole, always drawing in animals for a drink. I'm telling you, it's just breathtaking; one cannot visit this place only once in their lifetime.

11. When Jeremy arrived in Africa
 - A. he was quite excited about his trip.
 - B. he was too tired after the long flight.
 - C. he felt anxious about what was going to happen next.
 - D. he needed to get a good sleep as it was the middle of the night.
12. Why was Jeremy so pleased to be met by the pilot?
 - A. Because he wanted to make the most of his time on holiday.
 - B. Because he thought the pilot might not meet him.
 - C. Because he expected the pilot to be unfriendly.
 - D. Because he did not know where to go.
13. What does Jeremy say about the flight from Nairobi?
 - A. It was far too long.
 - B. The pilot flew in a dangerous way.
 - C. They were followed by a smaller plane.
 - D. It offered many impressive views.
14. What does Jeremy suggest about Loisaba?
 - A. It is still a safe and natural environment for animals.
 - B. Tourists are no longer allowed there.
 - C. Many of the animals are being hunted.
 - D. The wild animals often attack people.
15. Which of the following might Jeremy write about his experience?

A. "I am really concerned about the wild animals in Africa as they are facing great dangers. We should take measures."

C. "Visiting Africa does not differ much from a day trip to the zoo. The conditions and animal facilities are almost the same."

B. "It was thrilling to get a taste of natural Africa. It has been without a doubt an unforgettable experience."

D. "Unfortunately tourists are once again taking over beautiful Africa. They are ruining the landscape and threatening the animals' survival."

PART 4 Questions 16-20

Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer. There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Backpacking in Australia

After finishing what seemed like a lifetime in school, I told my parents that I was taking a gap year. 16 I was going travelling instead! I can't say that my parents were thrilled with the idea but they seemed to be quite understanding at the time, probably because they hadn't taken me seriously.

A friend of mine had e-mailed me from Australia. A year older than me, she had already gone to see the world alone. Now she was in Australia, travelling and working, and she suggested that I should start my travels there. You can't get much further from home than Australia and a trip down under, as they say, is perfect for travelling alone. It has sun, sand and plenty of surfing. 17 I couldn't wait to see a real Australian kangaroo!

Of course, my parents were not as confident as I was. They needed a lot of persuading. I showed them blogs and sites on backpacking around Australia. Finally, they agreed as they saw I had made up my mind. 18 They even bought me a great backpack for my travels!

Australia, as I found out, is well known for its travelling culture, so wherever you are, you meet lots of people. Backpacking is really popular, especially along the East Coast, which is famous for its party atmosphere. 19 It's a real break before entering university or trying to get jobs.

Although I did miss my family and comfortable bed from time to time, the experiences I had were worth it! I met amazing people and I saw rainforests, desert, beautiful sandy beaches and so much more! 20 But even those are part of the experience, I suppose!

- A. The only thing I didn't like were the bugs and mosquitoes.
- B. And, apart from beach life, there is also amazing wildlife.
- C. We argued all the time about my idea because they were worried.
- D. In other words, I was not going to university yet.
- E. In fact, they became quite helpful at that time.
- F. This meant I was going to stay with them for a year.
- G. You can spend the whole trip on this beach!
- H. Because of this many gap-year travellers choose to travel here.

PART 5 Questions 21-26

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Working as cabin crew

If you had asked Ann a few years ago what she would be doing in five years' time, she wouldn't have believed you if you had suggested she would be a cabin crew member. When she told her friends that she had (21)..... for such a job, most of them laughed.

However, after successfully (22)..... her four-week cabin crew training (23)....., the only person laughing now is Ann! Like many cabin crew, Ann is expected to work at any time of the day on any day of the year, and sometimes she has to work up to 12 hours a day. So the days can be long and the work tiring, but Ann is enjoying the unique and (24)..... lifestyle that being cabin crew brings.

Ann can enjoy a (25)..... of up to 17,000 pounds (or 20,000 pounds when she becomes a senior cabin crew member) and 36 days off per year. If you would like to (26)..... in Ann's footsteps, and work as cabin crew, it seems you simply have to get ready for a life of adventure. Most people would say it's worth it!

PART 6 Questions 27-32

For each question, write the correct answer. Write ONE word for each gap.

Things to do in London

London has to be one of the most exciting cities in the world, and probably one of the most expensive. However, you don't have to follow (27)..... usual tourist route. The museums and galleries are interesting of course, but the city has a lot more to offer to those who want to see (28)..... Londoners live. This way, you'll both save some money and you can have a more rewarding experience.

One of the biggest trends in London (29)..... going to street markets, where you can find a real variety of interesting things to buy. Portobello Road is probably the most famous, but there are many more to explore.

Over the past few years especially, an interesting development has been seen in food street markets, (30)..... you can find amazing tastes and great quality food, for a small amount of the price you would pay at a London restaurant. This seems to (31)..... the future of food and, if you think about it, it is an exciting one. You no longer (32)..... to pay a lot of money to eat well!
