

PRESENT SIMPLE VS PRESENT CONTINUOUS

I. Ahora escucharás lo que hace Maximiliano y su familia cada día vs lo que están haciendo ahora. Escucha atentamente la pronunciación, y luego responde oralmente las preguntas: usa un pronombre personal, el verbo en el tiempo verbal correcto, un adjetivo posesivo (cuando sea necesario), y complemento (cuando sea necesario).

- a. Where does Maximiliano usually live, and where is he sitting right now?
- b. When does Maximiliano usually wake up, but what is his father doing now instead of feeding the cows?
- c. What does Maximiliano's mother usually do in the morning, but what is she doing today?
- d. Why is Maximiliano drinking hot chocolate today, but what does he usually drink in the morning?
- e. Who usually cleans the yard and washes the dishes, but what is she doing today?
- f. How does Maximiliano's sister usually go to school, but how is she going today?
- g. What does the teacher usually do in class, but what is the teacher explaining today?
- h. Why is Mateo not talking right now, but what does he usually like doing?
- i. What do Maximiliano and his family usually do in the afternoon, but what are they doing today on the farm?
- j. What does Maximiliano usually do before sleeping, but what is he doing tonight?

- II. Ahora cuéntanos qué haces diariamente tú y tu familia vs lo que realmente están haciendo ahora. Recuerda usar los verbos de acción que vimos en clases, tiempo presente y presente continuo, palabras de enlace como but, expresiones de tiempo como usually, today, y otras que consideres apropiadas, posesivos adjetivos (cuando sea necesario); y complemento cuando creas que sea necesario. Escribe la primera parte y la segunda parte hazla de forma oral.
