

Focus 4

Unit 2.1 – vocabulary test

I. Complete the sentences, the first letters have been given.

1. Tom's always careful to do things properly. He's very t_____.
2. If someone tells me something, I believe them – why should I doubt them? I'm pretty t_____, I suppose.
3. My sister wants to write comedy shows for TV. I think she'd be perfect as she's very w_____. She always makes everyone laugh!
4. He's really m_____. He can go from annoyed to cheerful in an instant.
5. My parents are a_____ people. They love giving hugs and I've always known they care about me.
6. I think I'm quite p_____. I can tell when people are feeling sad or nervous, even if they try to hide it.
7. Sandra hates waiting for anything, or anyone! She's so i_____.
8. Jack always tries not to hurt other people's feelings. He's definitely not i_____.
9. I wish I could be as i_____ as you. You never seem to be stressed out about anything, not even exams.
10. You've eaten all the biscuits again and left the kitchen in a real mess. How can you be so s_____? I wish you'd think more about the rest of us sometimes.

I. Translate into Polish

daring –
larger than life –
self-conscious –
feel strongly about something – intellectual –
be full of oneself –
kind-hearted –
strong-willed – sensitive – insecure –
adventurous –
agreeable –
good-natured –
small talk –
speak up –

II. Translate into English

sprawiedliwy, bezstronny mieć zamiłowanie do nauki skromny, pełen pokory sprawiać, że ktoś się czuje swobodnie dusza towarzystwa myśleć twórczo, kreatywnie planować z wyprzedzeniem towarzyski
taktowny, grzeczny
spontaniczny
pomysłowy
krytyczny wobec siebie osiągać w czymś znakomite wyniki, wyróżniać się w czymś opanowany, zrównoważony wybuchowy, porywczy