

I. Homeschooling is a way of learning at home instead of going to school. Parents make the (1) _____ to teach their children by themselves, and this choice can change daily life. One clear benefit is a (2) _____, which helps students learn at their own speed. However, homeschooling also needs (3) _____ and patience from both parents and children.

- |                                     |                                      |                               |                               |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. A. decisively                    | B. decision                   | C. decide                     | D. decisive                   |
| 2. A. schedule flexible learning    | C. flexible learning schedule | B. flexible schedule learning | D. learning flexible schedule |
| 3. A. strong planning skills |                                      | B. planning strong skills     |                               |
| C. strong skills planning           |                                      | D. skills planning strong     |                               |

II. Read the following texts and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 4 to 8.

Telecommuting has become (4) _____ as more companies allow staff to work from home. Many workers set up a(n) (5) _____ to stay focused and keep work separate from daily life. This change can improve (6) _____ because people save time and avoid long travel. At the same time, clear responsibilities help teams know who does what each day. However, regular (7) _____ is still needed to share ideas and solve problems quickly. Managers can plan meetings and (8) _____ check-ins to support teamwork. With good rules and trust, telecommuting can balance work and personal life.

- |                             |                                 |                        |                   |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|------------------------|-------------------|
| 4. A. popularity            | B. popularly                    | C. popularise          | D. popular |
| 5. A. working specific area | B. specific working area |                        |                   |
| C. specific area working    | D. area specific working        |                        |                   |
| 6. A. production            | B. produce                      | C. productivity | D.                |
| productive                  |                                 |                        |                   |
| 7. A. interaction    | B. interact                     | C. interactively       | D.                |
| interactive                 |                                 |                        |                   |
| 8. A. simplicity            | B. simplify                     | C. simple       | D. simply         |

III. Read the following texts and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 9 to 12.

Body language plays an important role in daily communication. It is a (9) _____ in workplaces such as offices, schools, and meetings. People use body language to (10) _____ feelings without speaking. Simple actions like eye contact and posture can share clear (11) _____ with others. Strong body language can show (12) _____ in interviews or presentations. At the same time, it helps people understand rules of (13) _____ in different cultures. When used well, body language builds trust and reduces misunderstanding.

