

The words in bold are in the wrong sentences. Write the sentences with the correct words.

Jane got married at a bank. She started working there a month ago.

Peter's grandfather graduated last year. He was 85 years old.

Marc separated in Paris. He lived there with his parents and his sister.

Sally and Nick grew up last year. They love each other.

Jane died from univesrity last year. Now, she's working in an office.

Lisa and Paul got a job because they were unhappy together.

Rewrite each sentence using a modal.

It is a good idea to spend time with your grandparents (should)

Is it posible for me to go out with my friends for dinner tonight? (can)

It is my obligation to hold my sister's hand when we cross the road.

It was not possible for my grandmother to use a computer when she was a teen (could not)

It is not a good idea to be rude to your stepmother (should not)