Annual Chocolate Show

I'm sure you all love chocolate. Who doesn't? But how many of you would like to wear it? Don't worry! You can still wear your fabulous silk dress or classic Italian suit, as you can't buy chocolate clothes yet. But at this year's Chocolate Show in New York you can see a variety of "delicious" chocolate clothes and accessories, from formal dresses to lovely hats and bags.

For the more traditional of you, there are over 50 different types of chocolate to choose from. So, all you chocolate lovers, what are you waiting for? Famous chefs and chocolate makers present great recipes for your favorite chocolate desserts. And not only that! You can actually help the chefs prepare one of the recipes. And don't worry about your children. They can make art using - what else? -chocolate at "Children's Corner".

So, don't miss this year's Chocolate Show! It's from November 13th to November 16th at the Metropolitan Pavillion, 125W 18th Street (between 6th and 7th Avenue). To get there take the subway or the bus to 18th Street and then walk towards 6th Avenue.
