

Task 1: MCQs (Knowledge Check)

Question type: Multiple Choice

1. What was one way Nazis treated Jewish people?

- A. Gave them equal rights
 - B. Forced them into ghettos
 - C. Allowed them to lead the government
 - D. Gave them full freedom
-

2. What was the purpose of ghettos?

- A. To give people better housing
 - B. To isolate and control Jewish people
 - C. To protect Jewish communities
 - D. To train soldiers
-

3. What happened to many people under forced labour policies?

- A. They were paid high wages
 - B. They worked freely by choice
 - C. They were forced to work in harsh conditions
 - D. They became soldiers
-

4. Which group was mainly targeted by Nazi racial policies?

- A. Non-Europeans only
 - B. Jewish people and other minorities
 - C. All European citizens equally
 - D. Only soldiers
-

5. How did Nazi military control affect occupied areas?

- A. People gained independence
 - B. People experienced freedom and safety
 - C. People lived under strict control and fear
 - D. Governments became stronger
-
-

Task 2: Matching (Cause and Effect)

Question type: Matching (Google Forms can use "Multiple Choice Grid")

Instructions: Match the policy/action to its effect on people.

Policy/Action	Effect on People
Ghettos	?
Forced labour	?
Military occupation	?
Racial laws	?

Options to match (as choices):

- A. Limited freedom and strict control
 - B. People forced to live in overcrowded, poor areas
 - C. People forced to work under harsh conditions
 - D. Discrimination and loss of rights
-
-
-

Task 3: Scenario-Based MCQ

Question type: Multiple Choice

6. A Jewish family is forced to live in a crowded ghetto with little food and no freedom. What is the main cause of this situation?
- A. Military victory
 - B. Racial policies of Nazis
 - C. Economic growth
 - D. Trade agreements
-

7. Workers are taken from occupied countries and forced to work in factories for Germany. What type of policy is this?
- A. Trade policy
 - B. Military alliance
 - C. Forced labour policy
 - D. Peace agreement
-

Task 4: Higher Order MCQ (Analysis)

8. Which statement best explains the impact of Nazi policies on people?
- A. They improved living conditions for everyone
 - B. They created equality in occupied areas
 - C. They caused suffering, fear, and loss of rights for many people
 - D. They had no effect on daily life
-

9. What was a combined effect of racial policies and military control?
- A. People became more independent
 - B. People lived freely without fear
 - C. People faced oppression, fear, and hardship

- D. People gained political power
-
-

Task 5: Challenge MCQ

10. Which had a bigger impact on people's lives in occupied Europe?

- A. Racial policies (because they directly targeted groups and removed rights)
- B. Military strategies (because they enforced control through force)
- C. Both had a huge impact on people's daily lives and survival
- D. Neither had much impact