

Reporting verbs

Rewrite each sentence in reported speech, a suitable reporting verb and adjusting tense, pronouns, and word order where necessary.

“Don’t forget to call your grandmother,” - My mother said to me.

“You should study more for the exam,” - the teacher said to

“I’m sorry I didn’t tell you the truth earlier,” Jonahan said. _____

“Well done on passing your driving test!” The instructor said to him.

“I’ll help you with your homework later,” My sister said to me.

“Remember to bring your ID tomorrow,” the officer said to us. _____

“It’s a good idea to save some money,” my father said to me. _____

“It’s a good idea to save some money,” my father said to me.

“I shouldn’t have shouted at you,” she said. _____

“Congratulations on winning the competition!” they said to her.

10. “I will always support you,” he said to her. _____

