

LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

For more help
click here

1 Complete the sentences from the dialogue in the chart. Use the phrases below.

- more modern than
- more tired than

Comparatives: Long Adjectives

The photos are awesome, but the real balloons are more awesome than the photos.

Last year's festival was exciting. This year's festival was more exciting than last year's!

I have a modern cell phone, but my new camera is ¹ my cell phone.

My parents and I were tired. I was ² my parents.

2 Circle the option that is not possible in each sentence.

- The burgers were more unusual / expensive / intelligent than the hot dogs.
- Modern dances can be more difficult / nervous / interesting than traditional dances.
- The fireworks were more exciting / organized / delicious than the music events.
- Last year's festival was more recent / amazing / beautiful than this year's celebration.

LOOK!

Comparatives: Long Adjectives

more + adjective + than
Soccer is more exciting than golf.

3 Complete the sentences from the dialogue in the chart. Use the phrases below.

- as colorful as
- as expensive as

Comparatives: (not) as ... as

The burgers were expensive. The pizzas were expensive, too.

The burgers were ¹ the pizzas.

The photos are colorful. The real balloons are very colorful.

The photos aren't ² the real balloons.

4 Compare two places to eat. Complete the sentences with (not) as ... as and the adjectives in parentheses.

- Poncho Fries is n't as famous as Annie and Bennie's. (famous/not)
- Annie and Bennie's is Poncho Fries. (big)
- Annie and Bennie's is Poncho Fries. (old/not)
- In terms of price, Poncho Fries is Annie and Bennie's. (expensive/not)

For more help
click here

USE IT!

5 Work in pairs. Rank these items 1–4 in order of their importance to you at a festival.

- activities
- food
- location
- tradition

WORKBOOK

LIVE

WORKSHEETS

WORKBOOK

LIVE

WORKSHEETS

WORKBOOK

LIVE

WORKSHEETS

WORKBOOK

LIVE

WORKSHEETS