A visit to the museum

It was Thursday, but the routine wasn't the same. There was a school trip to the museum in the capital city. 1_____. But some of them were a bit nervous about the long bus trip ahead. Karol was in the back seat with his friends. 2_____.

When they arrived in the city, the teacher showed them the parliament, the cathedral, the national concert hall – and then took them to the museum.

3_____. Science was interesting for Karol – you could push buttons and switch on machines. But ancient history was terrible! Karol was bored. He put his mobile phone behind an old book, and two minutes later there was a rude noise in the room. Everyone laughed, but not the teacher. 4_____.

Karol decided to look around the museum on his own. He went down some stairs, along a corridor and past some offices. It was very quiet and then very dark. 5_____. There was a light under a door, and voices whispered, 'Karol! Karol!' He opened the door and walked into a bright but empty room. Suddenly Karol was scared. He turned round and tried to leave, but he couldn't open the door. And now he didn't have his mobile phone! Was this real? Was he asleep or awake? He waited to hear an alarm clock, but everything was silent.
