Bears Get Ready for Winter

In the summer and fall, bears (דובים/דביبة) get ready for the winter.

In the winter, they do not go outside in the cold.

In the spring, they go outside again.

1

Summer

In June, July, and August it is hot.

Bears eat a lot of fruit and fish.

Then, they are not hungry in the winter.

2

Fall

In September, October, and November it is cool.

Bears look for a safe place to sleep for the winter.

3

Winter

In December, January, and February it is snowy.

Bears do not go outside. They sleep.

Bears can sleep for 100 days.

They do not wake up to drink or eat.

4

Spring

In March it is warm.

The bears wake up.

They go outside to eat and play in the leaves.
