

THE PLANTS

1. Select the correct words to complete the sentences.

- a. Many plants reproduce through their .
- b. The pistil contains .
- c. The stamen are the . part of the flower.
- d. The stamen produce .
- e. The corolla is a group of colourful leaves called .
- f. The calyx is a group of little Green leaves called .
- g. Plants are generally divide into . parts.
- h. The . keep the plant fixed in the soil.
- i. Plants . some of their own nutrients.
- j. The . use sunlight and absorb carbón dioxide.
- k. Plants . to their environment.
- l. . Plants have male and female reproductive parts.

2. Write true or false for each sentence.

- a. Plants have a locomotor system and can move arounds.
- b. Plants need sunlight to produce nutrients.
- c. Carbon dioxide and water are changed into sedes during photosynthesis.
- d. All plants have flowers and seeds.
- e. Plants release carbon dioxide into the air.
- f. Plants react to their environment.

3. Complete the sentences.

- a. The ovule is inside the .
- b. The . protects the pistil.
- c. Pollen forms at the end of the .
- d. All the petals together are called the .
- e. . absorb minerals and water from the soil.
- f. . absorb carbon dioxide and sunlight.
- g. A plant's nutrients circulate through its . and .