

1 Circle the correct words for the definitions.

- a place to keep your money safe
A checkout B change C bank account
- return something to the shop if you don't want it
A give away B take back C save up
- the amount of money something costs
A price B charge C pay
- when something costs less than usual
A change B checkout C special offer
- keep money for something you want to buy
A give away B save up C charge
- the money the shop assistant returns to you
A pay B price C change

2 Match the sentence halves.

- These trainers were really cheap because C
 - My mum gives all my old clothes
 - I opened my first bank
 - The queue was so long at the checkout
 - I couldn't go on the school trip to France
 - I've started doing a part-time job to
 - My sister's phone bill charges
 - I haven't kept the receipt
- A save up for a new computer game.
 B account last weekend with £50.
 C I bought them on special offer.
 D because it cost too much.
 E away to my younger cousins.
 F that I decided not to buy the books after all.
 G so I can't take this dress back to the shop.
 H were so high last month that she couldn't afford to pay them.

3 Decide if the words in bold are verbs (V) or nouns (N).

- The cinema only charges £3 for a ticket on Sunday afternoons. V
- Her prom dress cost £100 – so expensive!
- The pay is quite good for a part-time job.
- The cost of living is getting higher and higher.
- My smartphone monthly charges have increased this month.
- I lent Jenny £10 last week, but she still hasn't paid me back.

4 Tick (✓) the correct sentences. Then underline the mistake and correct the sentences that are wrong.

- These shoes costed £30 on special offer.
..... cost
- You receive a salary or pay for doing a job.
.....
- The charge of a bus ticket is £1.20.
.....
- I've run out of pocket money. Can I price you back next week instead?
.....
- Post and packaging is free of charge if you order online before the end of the month.
.....
- How much do they pay for a haircut at the new salon in town?
.....

5 Put the words in order in (A–D) to make responses. Then match them to the problems (1–4).

- I can't afford these trainers. D
 - My headphones are broken.
 - I want to save some money.
 - This doesn't fit me anymore.
- A them / take / to / the / back / You / shop / should
 B give / should / it / someone / away / to / You
 C open / bank / should / a / You / account
 D should / You / for / save / them / up
You should save up for them.