

Sad memory		Here's to the ones that we got, cheers to the wish you were here
Childhood memory		When I was younger, my father told me I would be happy
Personal goal		Because I'm happy, clap along if you feel like a room without a roof
Saying goodbye		I'm on top of the world, I've been waiting on this for a while now
Confident		Sometimes I feel like I'm all alone, no one understands me
Happiness		We were dancing in the dark, with you between my arms
Feeling lonely		I will always remember the day you said goodbye
Romantic memory		I got that sunshine in my pocket, for that good soul in my feet
Family memory		I remember years ago, someone told me I should take caution
Life lesson		These are the nights that never die, my father told me
