Comparative and superlative adjectives

Comparative adjectives

To make comparative adjectives, we normally add -er or -r.

This table is cheaper than that table. It's nicer than those over there.

For adjectives ending in consonant + -y, we delete -y and add -ier.

William is funny but Eric is funnier than William.

For adjectives with two or more syllables, we put more before the adjective.

These new chairs are more comfortable than the old chairs.

The opposite of more is less. We use less in the same way as more.

This sofa is less comfortable than that sofa.

The two most common adjectives that have irregular comparatives are good and bad.

1 Change the adjectives into comparative adjectives.

|-----------------------|----------------|

Superlative adjectives

To make superlative adjectives, we normally add -est or -st. For adjectives with two or more syllables, we put the most before the adjective.

I like French and Geography, but History is the most interesting subject.

The opposite of the most is the least. We use the least in the same way as the most.

All the lamps are expensive, but this one is the least expensive.

The two most common adjectives that have irregular superlatives are good and bad.

Molly is very good at history.

in the class. In English, she got

² (high) mark in the class.

It isn't surprising that Molly is

³ (good) in the class

at English. She reads a lot of English stories. She likes maths the least, so it isn't surprising that she got ⁴

(low) marks in that subject. The subject that she is ⁵ (happy) about is art. She likes art a lot, so she was sad when she saw her mark. When she discovered that her marks for science were
