PRESENT SIMPLE OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS? EARTH DAY EDITION

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in brackets in the Present Simple or Present Continuous.

1- Every year on April 22, people around the world _____ (celebrate) Earth Day.

2- Right now, my class _____ (plant) trees in the school garden to help nature.

3- We usually _____ (recycle) paper, plastic, and glass at home.

4- Look! The volunteers _____ (clean) the river near the park today.

5- People often _____ (save) water because it is very important for the planet.

6- This week, our school _____ (organise) activities for Earth Day.

7- I _____ (learn) about climate change in science class at the moment.

8- In general, humans _____ (produce) too much pollution.

9- Be quiet! The students _____ (listen) to a talk about the environment.

10- Every day, my family _____ (turn off) the lights to save energy.

11- At the moment, scientists _____ (study) how to reduce plastic waste.

12- We usually _____ (walk) or cycle to school instead of using cars.

13- Look! The children _____ (pick up) rubbish in the park.

14- Earth Day _____ (be) a global event that happens every year.

15- Right now, people all over the world _____ (think) about climate action.

16- My teacher often _____ (talk) about protecting the environment.

17- Today, we _____ (create) posters about recycling and nature.

18- In many countries, people _____ (plant) trees to help the planet.

19- Shhh! The class _____ (watch) a video about pollution.

20- Usually, I _____ (bring) my own bottle to avoid plastic waste.

LIVEWORKSHEETS