

1. Choose the correct answer (A, B, or C).
1. What is the main goal of Emma and Leo's project?
 - A. To explain central ideas about Zero Hunger
 - B. To practice grammar rules in English class
 - C. To read stories about daily life situations
2. What type of source did Leo use for his information?
 - A. A long and detailed science textbook
 - B. A short and informative TED Talk video
 - C. A simple and informal social media post
3. What did Emma do after reading the article?
 - A. She ignored the text and started another task
 - B. She copied the text without making changes
 - C. She wrote a summary using her own words
4. What is one key takeaway from Emma's article?
 - A. Hunger only exists in very poor countries
 - B. Farmers should stop producing food completely
 - C. Governments must improve national food systems
5. What idea did the TED Talk speaker convey?
 - A. Technology has no effect on farming production
 - B. Technology can support farmers to grow more food
 - C. Farmers should avoid using modern technology

6. What do students do in discussion groups?
- A. Analyze materials and present main ideas clearly
 - B. Watch videos and relax without participating
 - C. Write exams and answer questions individually
7. Why do they want to use visuals in presentations?
- A. To make the presentation longer and more complex
 - B. To help communicate ideas more clearly and effectively
 - C. To avoid speaking in front of the whole class
8. What is the purpose of the role-play activity?
- A. To write long essays about different global issues
 - B. To memorize vocabulary without using it in context
 - C. To act as characters and express different perspectives
9. What happens during the peer review activity?
- A. Students exchange summaries and give helpful feedback
 - B. Students complete tasks without interacting with others
 - C. Students watch content without writing any responses
10. What is the final goal of these activities?
- A. To complete tasks quickly without understanding content
 - B. To communicate central ideas in a clear and concise way
 - C. To focus only on learning new vocabulary words