

- 1 Resources for the research were gathered from the Internet and from
- 2 A research material that a librarian found was a
- 3 The land area that surrounded a ditch was mainly used for and not as a source of drinking water.
- 4 The soil on the land was beneficial as it increased the production of beans and as it
- 5 The wealthy locals liked to buy porcelain from in the town market.
- 6 Scarecrows were used as guards to stop birds from
- 7 People decided to adapt to the new farming system because it helped them to
- 8 The deep ploughing machine modifies the consistency of
- 9 The new windmills were innovative because people could adjust the fan to
- 10 Poor people from small households generally have a higher production rate because all children work as

- 1 He has left certain signs in this because he was a creative artist.
- 2 A person who can create a good work of art usually uses in a very creative way.
- 3 There are many creative ways of using for art projects.
- 4 Good artists are able to use circuits in conventional art.
- 5 Scientists and artists have discovered new ways of using in art therapy.
- 6 Along with the great art tips, the benefits of using coloured as a main colouring medium are explained in the art class.
- 7 Many artists have strong devotion for both
- 8 are becoming more common in many countries these days.
- 9 Both and art are means of self-expression that determine an individual's relationship with the society.
- 10 Some people who have experienced have art play profound role in their life.

- 1 Recent research focuses on human eyesight and the amazing part of it that our eyesight is controlled by
- 2 Humans are able to distinguish one bee from another just by looking at the
- 3 Scientists say that the way the bee's is an indication of how their body works.
- 4 The research showed that people are able to just by eyesight.
- 5 One of the current problems is that the walking sticks for blind people don't provide them with
- 6 Road detection is an instrument that guides drivers through
- 7 One of the advantages of living in an is that it is beneficial for the medical services.
- 8 People who live in rural area can determine bird flying through eyesight.
- 9 I've no idea how is related to the eyesight research, although it apparently provides relevant information.
- 10 The paper also states that there is in Mars, but its relation to eyesight is also unclear.

- 1 In the olden times, the type and amount of food that a person ate was determined by their status in the
- 2 In ancient times, homes had an open-air space called a courtyard and meals were there.
- 3 Ancient foods were usually composed of low nutrition food or fluids that gave the a feeling of fullness.
- 4 Slow cookers and were used in the ancient times to make yoghurt.
- 5 Ancient cultures have a few
- 6 For women to be able to use the quern-stone, it had to be placed between their just at the end of their apron.
- 7 The ancient indicates that people hunted in that area 16,000 years ago.
- 8 According to a study conducted by a prestigious university, evidence exists for ancient change.
- 9 In an Israeli desert, a set of ancient were discovered and it was identified as a new species of rodent.
- 10 Until about 100 BC, the Roman costume is hardly different from the Greek except for the toga.

- 1 According to the survey, the group that consumes the most fat are
- 2 The survey included research investigation on people's age, race, place of birth, and brackets.
- 3 The surveys were conveniently conducted through the use of
- 4 The survey results show that people from the same family have
- 5 It was revealed in the survey that adults with children tended to
- 6 The results showed that one of the main causes of obesity was parents' to cook meals at home.
- 7 One of the limitations of this research was the involved.
- 8 The research was limited because it didn't consider the minority and the between children and adults.
- 9 The research was limited because it didn't cover the fact that parental influence on diet decreased as increased.
- 10 The research was limited because it excluded details about how can influence one's dietary habits.

- 1 The new research on the effects of combining television, sports, media and fashion will involve the entire
- 2 The new research on the combination of television, sports, media and fashion will have the of specialists.
- 3 Transfer regulations for the new research impeded footballer's freedom to
- 4 The new research will depend on finding and utilising to keep the project moving forward.
- 5 The new research was a fresh approach that led to many and these outcomes will be a part of the new service.
- 6 The new research will investigate deep into trends and textile technology.
- 7 The research will include an extensive report on the effects of in the labour market.
- 8 The research will include information about regulations, and broadcasting laws and policies.
- 9 The new research will describe the plan of a particular for either television or radio.
- 10 The new research will explore the effects of on students.

- 1 The author rejects the idea that crocodiles live there because there is no to back it up.
- 2 According to the research, there are usually 20 crocodiles in a
- 3 The scientists say crocodiles prefer to live in caves because of better
- 4 The research also shows that there are crocodiles that live
- 5 In previous years, the wetlands in North Africa turned into
- 6 The author states that wetlands typically last only in a year before it turns dry.
- 7 There was no information given about the of the wetlands, nor how far down crocodiles can go.
- 8 Local people who live around wetland areas do not crocodiles.
- 9 The local people are not scared of crocodiles because no one has been by them so far.
- 10 The author wants to find more information about the crocodile's population size and their

- 1 The survey asks participants whether critical health care services should include the of patients.
- 2 The survey results show that people believe hospitals and their vehicles and equipments should always be kept
- 3 The survey questionnaire provided participants with that they previously didn't know about.
- 4 The survey results revealed that the current resident gave patients much better attention.
- 5 Participants in the survey all agreed that nurses at the hospital should receive raises and
- 6 Survey results showed that patients think there should be better health facilities for patients and
- 7 Patients who participated in the survey say that the between patients, nurses and doctors is relatively okay.
- 8 Visitors who participated in the survey complained that there wasn't a comfortable place for them to when looking after their patients.
- 9 Many of the patients and visitors complained about the utensils used to eat hospital food.
- 10 The hospital staff themselves feel that hospital should start with the planning team.

- 1 Playing is very important for children's emotional development because it helps to build their
- 2 Playing encourages the development of children's skills as it requires them to communicate with others.
- 3 Aside from many other things, playing also teaches children how to be
- 4 Playing is a fun, relaxing and enjoyable activity for children but there are also involved in playing which children also need for their growth.
- 5 A form of counselling that uses play to help children resolve psychosocial challenges is play
- 6 Parents, teachers, and other child carers need to that playtime is essential for children's overall development.
- 7 It may be impossible to eradicate all risks involved in physical playing so it is crucial to take precautions to ensure that children are
- 8 Playing is a means by which children can be taught about aspects of
- 9 Play can only work as a therapeutic medium if there is full of the parents and the child.
- 10 It is natural for to arise during playtime and children should be taught to resolve them by themselves.

- 1 The students were interviewed about the subject of
- 2 The two research methods used for the survey were email questionnaires and
- 3 The majority of the questions in the survey were related to the of Business Management graduates.
- 4 The survey revealed that 34% of Business Management graduates needed
- 5 Apparently, there is a large proportion of the who studied Business Management.
- 6 One of the useful skills that Business Management students learn in college is working as
- 7 Another useful skill that Business Management students learn in college is
- 8 According to the survey, students found out that the they learned in college were useless.
- 9 The study revealed that students thought the advice they were being given on was useless.
- 10 Business Management students find the advice they are given on is useless.