On My Own

MATH REPLAY | GO ONLINE

Name _____

What equation can show the problem? Write an equation. Use ? for the unknown. Then solve.

1. Jack has 3 fewer pumpkins than Lily. Lily has 5 pumpkins. How many pumpkins does Jack have?

Equation:

_____ _____ = ?

_____ pumpkins

2. Gabby picks 3 fewer peaches than Mason. Mason picks 8 peaches. How many peaches does Gabby pick?

Equation:

_____ _____ = ?

_____ peaches

3. Brooklyn eats 2 more carrots than Aubrey. Brooklyn eats 13 carrots. How many does Aubrey eat?

Equation:

_____ _____ = ?

_____ carrots

Copyright © McGraw-Hill Education

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. STEM Connection Ruby gives the cats 6 fewer treats than the dogs. She gives the dogs 16 treats. How many treats does Ruby give the cats?

Draw to show your thinking.

_____ treats

_____ _____ = ?

5. Extend Your Thinking Write or draw problem with an unknown. Then solve.

Reflect

How can you add or subtract to find how many more or how many fewer?

Math is... Mindset

How have you shown that you understand your classmates ideas?

Copyright © McGraw-Hill Education

LIVEWORKSHEETS