Listening: Directions

Exercise 1. Listen to the dialogue between Laura and a clerk. Fill in the gaps in the transcript.

Laura: What's the fastest way to get to central London from here?

Clerk: Take the _____ Express. Just follow signs for Trains to reach Heathrow _____ station. From there, take a Heathrow Express service to London _____. Journey time is 15 minutes. Paddington Station is at the heart of London's _____. End and has excellent connections to the rest of the city. Your _____ is near there.

Laura: Oh, good! Thank you very much.

We will practice giving and taking directions more in a future lesson. This listening exercise was to introduce comparatives and superlative.

Usage: comparatives and superlatives

Today we will review comparatives and superlatives—especially in questions. This is very useful for when you must ask for directions, want to compare prices, etc.

Grammar Reference
adjective	–	comparative adjective – superlative adjective
fast		faster fastest
good		better best
cheap		cheaper cheapest

There are two ways to form comparatives and superlatives—depending on the length (number of syllables) of the adjective.

- If the adjective has one syllable (like those above), English speakers add -er or -est to the end of the adjective.
- If the adjective has two or more syllables, English speakers use the words more or most before the adjective—as in Spanish. Compare:
 - more comfortable than—más cómodo que
 - the most comfortable—el más cómodo.
- The exception is 2-syllable words ending in -y (e.g. happy, lazy, etc.). These follow the first rule.

Exercise 2. Complete the chart with the comparative or superlative forms of the adjectives.

Adjective	Comparative Form	Superlative Form
slow	than	the
amazing	than	the
hungry	than	the
patient	than	the
good	than	the
bad	than	the
angry	than	the
strange	than	the
lovely	than	the
interesting	than	the

Note that the comparative is always followed by the word than and that the superlative is always preceded by the word the.

Exercise 3. Put the adjectives into the comparative or superlative form.

1. Where is the (near) bus stop?
2. I hope this flight is (calm) than the last one.
3. This watch is (cheap) than that one.
4. What's the (fast) way to downtown?
5. When's the (earliest) flight to Buenos Aires?
6. Which is (expensive): going by taxi or by train?
7. The food in Zanzibar was (good) than the food in England.
8. That was the (bad) hotel I have ever stayed in.

Listening: At Reception

You will hear a conversation between a guest, Melissa, and a receptionist at the hotel where she's staying. She's at the front desk. Listen and try to understand it without looking at the transcript. Then listen again and fill in the blanks.

Receptionist: Hi, can I help you?

Melissa: Yes, I made a reservation a couple of weeks ago.

Receptionist: What name did you make it _____, please?

Melissa: Simmons. Melissa Simmons.

Receptionist: Ah, yes, a single _____ for two nights.

Melissa: _____, it was a double room for three nights.

Receptionist: Oh, I'm sorry about that. I'll just change the _____. Right, so that's a double room for three nights.

Melissa: Yes, I'll be checking _____ on Monday morning.

Receptionist: Could I have your credit card and _____ please?

Melissa: Yes, here you are. Thanks.

Receptionist: You're in room _____, which is on the sixth floor. Here's your key card, and the _____ is just over there.

Melissa: Great. What time is the restaurant open for _____, please?

Receptionist: Between _____.

Melissa: OK, and is there a swimming pool here?

Receptionist: Yes, just down those _____ over there on the right. We've got some pool _____ if you need one.

Melissa: Perfect.

Receptionist: And let me know if there's anything else you need. Enjoy your _____.

Melissa: Thanks.
