

Part 1: Adjectives with -ed and -ing

Instructions: Choose the correct adjective form to complete the sentence.

1. I watched a documentary about space last night. It was absolutely (fascinated / fascinating).
 2. We were so (bored / boring) during the long flight because the entertainment system wasn't working.
 3. Is it (surprised / surprising) that she won the race? She's been training for months!
 4. I'm quite (confused / confusing). Could you explain the instructions one more time?
 5. The news about the earthquake was very (shocked / shocking).
 6. My younger brother is so (annoyed / annoying) when he plays his music loudly.
 7. I feel very (relaxed / relaxing) after that spa day.
 8. The marathon runners looked completely (exhausted / exhausting) at the finish line.
 9. This map is really (confused / confusing); I think we're lost.
 10. Are you (interested / interesting) in joining the photography club?
-

Part 2: Modals of Speculation (may, might, could)

Instructions: Complete the sentences using may, might, or could. Note: In most of these, all three are grammatically possible to show possibility, but try to find the best fit for the context.

11. Don't leave your bag there. Someone _____ steal it.
12. I'm not sure where Sarah is. She _____ be in the library, or she _____ be at lunch.
13. Take an umbrella. It _____ rain later, even though the sun is out now.
14. A: "Who is that man at the door?" B: "I don't know. It _____ be the delivery driver."
15. If we don't hurry, we _____ miss the start of the film.
16. That story _____ be true, but it sounds very unlikely to me.
17. Scientists think that they _____ find a cure for this disease within the next decade.
18. A: "Why isn't he answering his phone?" B: "He _____ be driving at the moment."
19. We _____ go to Italy for our holidays, but we haven't decided yet.
20. Watch out! That ladder doesn't look stable. You _____ fall.