

Interconnected Global Goals: Multiple Choice

Instructions: Choose the correct option based on the conversation about Global Goals.

1. According to David, what is the primary prerequisite for ensuring future generations care about local ecosystems?

- A) Implementing strict environmental laws
- B) Improving the quality of education
- C) Increasing funding for urban parks
- D) Reducing global carbon emissions

2. What specific issue does Lin observe during her volunteer work that contributes to hunger?

- A) Higher prices of organic produce
- B) Total lack of available resources
- C) Large amounts of food waste
- D) Lack of international transport

3. David argues that economic growth is significantly strengthened when society focuses on:

- A) Expanding the local workforce
- B) Advancing gender equality
- C) Building new infrastructure
- D) Protecting maritime life

4. According to Sofia, what is a necessary requirement for achieving "Decent Work"?

- A) Safe and healthy conditions
- B) Higher entry-level salaries
- C) Flexible remote schedules
- D) Shorter weekly work hours

5. Lin suggests that "No Poverty" can be addressed more effectively by first ensuring:

- A) Better city council representation
- B) Access to higher-level technology
- C) Protection of the local wildlife
- D) People have basic needs met

6. David believes that better infrastructure for every neighborhood would lead to:

- A) Increased taxes for the wealthy
- B) Reduced social inequalities
- C) Faster public transit times
- D) More students in classrooms

7. Which "elephant in the room" does Sofia insist must be addressed for other plans to matter?

- A) Clean water and sanitation
- B) Responsible consumption
- C) Urgent climate action
- D) Peace and strong justice

8. In the dialogue, Sofia mentions that her initial inspiration came from looking at which exhibit?

- A) The Sustainable Cities exhibit
- B) The Life on Land exhibit
- C) The Zero Hunger exhibit
- D) The Good Health exhibit

9. What does Lin believe is the core issue regarding food security?

- A) How food resources are managed
- B) The lack of agricultural land
- C) The high cost of food shipping
- D) A shortage of volunteer workers

10. What is the main conclusion the group reaches regarding social, environmental, and economic goals?

- A) They should be handled by schools
- B) They must happen at the same time
- C) They are mostly local urban issues
- D) They depend solely on city councils