

21st Century Reading 1

Unit 1

A. Word search.

Identify the words based on the Word Search vocabulary.

1. something that is true and can be proven
2. what someone thinks or feels, but it cannot be proven true or false
3. to quickly think of many ideas, usually in a group
4. something that will probably happen
5. a thinker who studies ideas about life, knowledge, and existence
6. to eat, drink, or use up; also to absorb
7. feeling sure of yourself; having trust in your abilities
8. a promise that something will happen or be true
9. the way a person lives, including habits, choices, and daily activities
10. a film or program that provides factual information about real events or topics

11. the order in which things happen
12. one person, separate from others
13. a person who chooses and takes care of a collection (like art, videos, or museum items)
14. the ability to do something even if it is hard or scary; bravery
15. a strong effect or influence

B. Answer the questions.

1. If you can dare your friends to a 30-day challenge, what will it be? Why did you choose this challenge?

Cooking & Snack Challenge
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Try making one simple snack or drink each day (smoothies, sandwiches, fruit salads)
Kindness Challenge
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Do one small act of kindness daily (help a classmate, write a thank-you note, share a snack, compliment someone).
Daily Vocabulary Adventure
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Learn one new word per day (with meaning, pronunciation, and a sentence).
Mini Video Diary Challenge
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Record a 1–2 minute video each day in English about something fun (school, hobbies, favorite food).

2. From the choices above, which do you think will be the easiest challenge for you? Why?

3. Which do you think will be the most difficult to achieve? Why?