Gerund and infinitive

Gerund

verb + ING	→ playing, dancing, making, swimming

Use: After PREPOSITIONS → Thank you FOR comING.

Infinitive

TO + verb	→ to play, to dance, to make, to swim

Use: After ADJECTIVES → This cake is EASY TO make.

Exercise:

- Put the verb in brackets in the correct form: Gerund or infinitive, as in the example:

  ➔ I'm thinking of moving to Bariloche.

  ➔ I'm so happy to see you!

1. Do you think it's safe _____ (drink) this water?
2. Doctor's writing is impossible _____ (read).
3. I always dream about _____ (live) in a small house by the sea.
4. I wanted to go out alone, but my Mum insisted on _____ (come) with me.
5. I'm sorry _____ (hear) you failed the test.
6. I'm tired of _____ (work) here. I'm thinking of _____ (do) something else.
7. It's easy _____ (make) mistakes when you first start driving.
8. Merlo is a very nice place _____ (live).
9. My family and I talked about _____ (travel) to Spain.
10. My friends congratulated me on _____ (pass) my exam.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. My mum was surprised _____ (see) I was studying English.

12. Our neighbours were sorry for _____ (make) so much noise.

13. Some of these words are impossible _____ (translate).

14. Thank you for _____ (help) me with my homework!

15. The text is difficult _____ (understand).

16. They accused me of _____ (tell) lies.

LIVEWORKSHEETS