B. Writing.

Imagine you are planning a day out with your friends. Write a paragraph (about 5-7 sentences) describing your plans for the day. Use the first conditional to talk about what you will do if certain situations or conditions arise during your day out. See example below.

"I'm looking forward to our day out with friends this weekend. If the weather is nice, we will have a picnic in the park. If it starts to rain, we'll quickly find shelter in the nearby café. In case we get hungry, we'll bring sandwiches, but if there's a food truck, we might try some street food. If we have time, we could rent bicycles and explore the bike trails. If it gets too late, we'll catch a movie at the cinema. It should be a fun day!"
