Lesson 6.1 Vocabulary

BECV Part 4/BULATS

1 Choose the correct option a, b, c or d.

Fashion is big business, and some clothing companies have been accused ¹ not being as ² as they could be. There have been several scandals where workers are working in very ³ and even dangerous conditions for extremely low ⁴ Consumers like to buy inexpensive fashionable clothes, but increasingly they are more aware ⁵ where their clothes are made and are concerned about the working conditions of the people who made them. Branding something as ⁶ is one way to show the consumer that a product is made by workers who get a decent salary and work in a good environment. In order to ensure that all goods are ethically ⁷ , consumers need to ⁸ responsibility for their choice of clothing. If you look ⁹ the whole fashion industry today, it is a lot better than it was, but there are still companies that put the welfare of their staff after profit. However, if people continue to organise campaigns ¹⁰ these organisations, it may be possible to finally eliminate them.
