Multiple matching

I can make basic inferences from simple information in a short text.

1 What are you like? Use the adjectives in the box to finish the sentences.

1 I'm ... 2 I'm sometimes ... 3 I'm not ...

active adventurous caring friendly funny hard-working independent optimistic quiet responsible sensible sociable

2 SPEAKING Follow the instructions to complete the task.

- Choose three adjectives in Exercise 1 or your own ideas to describe your partner's personality.
- Read the article quickly and decide which personality type best describes your partner.
- Check if your partner agrees.

3 Read the article and choose the best title.

- There's more to a job than a good salary
- Career choices for your personality type
- Personality test: what job would make you happiest?

EXAM FOCUS Multiple matching

4 Read the text again. Match the people (1–5) with the personality types from the text (A–G) that best describe them. There are two extra personality types.

- Joe is very well-organised. Doing the same thing every day doesn't scare him. People enjoy talking to him – they know he will not disappoint them.
- Gena believes in herself and her abilities. But she also wants to improve all the time. She loves books because they teach her new things.
- Kate cares about people and enjoys being with them and having fun. But she also tries to help them grow, to become better, to learn more. She's their motivator.
- Bo feels best when he's on his own. He doesn't like people telling him how to do things. He loves analysing difficult theoretical problems. And he's definitely not an adventurous type.
- Vlad is open and friendly with people he likes, but he also needs some alone-time, when he can rest, relax and think. And what he hates the most is when people fight.

1 Joe 2 Gena 3 Kate 4 Bo 5 Vlad

Are you thinking about careers and what kind of job you'd like in the future?

It will help if you ask yourself the question: 'What am I like?'. Some jobs are more suitable for you than others. We've matched jobs to seven different personality types.
