

READING PASSAGE: LIFE IN THE COUNTRYSIDE

I live in a small village. Life here is moving more slowly than in the city, but I love it. During the harvest season, the farmers have to work harder than usual. They wake up earlier to collect the crops.

In my village, the air is fresher because there are many green trees and vast rice fields. Children play more freely here; we often go kite flying or swim in the river. Although we don't have many modern cinemas, we live more happily and stay closer to nature.
