

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

MOTHER'S DAY VOCABULARY

Read the two sentences. Complete the second sentence with my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. Anna has got flowers for Mother's Day. _____ flowers are pink.
2. I have got a card for my mom. _____ card is very special.
3. Tom has got a gift for his mother. _____ gift is a bracelet.
4. We have got a cake for Mother's Day. _____ cake is chocolate.
5. My parents have got a surprise for Grandma. _____ surprise is a dinner.
6. You have got a present for your mom. _____ present is in a box.
7. Lisa has got a photo for her mother. _____ photo is old.
8. The dog has got a toy for Mother's Day (fun!). _____ toy is small.
9. My friends have got flowers for their moms. _____ flowers are beautiful.
10. I have got chocolates for my mother. _____ chocolates are sweet.
11. Peter has got a card for his mom. _____ card is blue.
12. We have got breakfast ready. _____ breakfast is on the table.
13. You have got a nice message for your mom. _____ message is kind.
14. The cat has got a ribbon for Mother's Day. _____ ribbon is red.
15. My sister has got a gift for our mom. _____ gift is a candle.
16. They have got a song for their mother. _____ song is lovely.
17. I have got a drawing for my mom. _____ drawing is colorful.
18. John and Sam have got a cake for their mother. _____ cake is big.
19. My teacher has got a card for her mom. _____ card is handmade.
20. We have got flowers for our grandmother. _____ flowers are fresh.