

Identify the famous buildings and match the descriptions with the correct picture.

British library - Trinity College - Empire State Building - Sidney Opera House

1

It is the national library of the United Kingdom. It has over 150 million items in all known languages and formats; books, newspapers, magazines, music recordings, maps... It receives copies of all books

2

It is an expressionist modern design. It has got a series of large 'shells'. These shells form the roof of the structure. It presents many touring productions in a variety of performance genres. It is a symbol not only for the city, but for the whole Australian country.

3

It is a very ancient university in Ireland. It is the university of Dublin. Many students study in this college. It has a big library. This library is the biggest in Ireland.

4

This is a very famous building in the city of New York. The building has 85 stories of commercial and office space. The observation deck is open from 9:30 a. m. to midnight everyday. Children tickets cost $1.35.

