Read the text and the questions below. For each question, circle the correct answer.

Tall Ships Festival

Tall ships are big ships that people travelled on more than a hundred years ago. There is a special festival called the Tall Ships Festival in my city every May. Hundreds of people go to it every year.

Last year I went to the festival with my uncle, who loves all kinds of ships, but tall ships are his favourite. It was fantastic and I took lots of photos! We could go onto some of the ships, and that was exciting! On one ship, called The Heron, the people who worked there showed us all the different parts of their ship. The ship wasn't moving, but I walked around and imagined that I was travelling to mysterious and exotic places.

In the afternoon, we watched four of the smallest ships taking part in a short race. It was exciting because there was quite a lot of wind and the ships moved fast. Then, in the evening, we went to a feast on one of the ships. We had to pay, but it didn't cost a lot of money and the food was delicious. There was music too, and later, there were some fireworks. They were really noisy and a bit scary!

1. What does Orla say about the festival?

A. It is new.

B. It is popular.

C. It is far from her home.

2. What does Orla say about her uncle?

A. He goes to the festival every year.

B. He likes taking photos of tall ships.

C. He prefers tall ships to other ships.

3. On The Heron, Orla ...

A. went on a short journey.

B. saw many parts of the ship.

C. talked to the people who worked on it.

4. What does Orla say about the race?

A. She enjoyed it.

B. All the ships were in it.

C. She was on one of the ships.

5. What does Orla say about the food?

A. It was expensive.

B. It was cold.

C. It was delicious.

6. What does Orla say about the fireworks?

A. They were quiet.

B. They were frightening.

C. They lasted a long time.
