ARTICLES – REVISION CARD 1

1. ..... Lake Superior is freezing cold, so as ..... rule, you don't just go for ..... walk on the beach without a coat.
2. We wanted to see ..... Alps, but as ..... result, we saw nothing because it was ..... foggy weather.
3. I had only ..... little time to spend on ..... Nile, so I just sat there from beginning to ..... end of my coffee break.
4. I've got ..... cold, so at ..... present I'm not flying to ..... Madagascar.
5. ..... elderly shouldn't take such long flights over ..... Pacific as they might have ..... strong headache and other health issues.
6. ..... British Museum is ..... only place in London where you can pass ..... time for six hours and not get bored.
7. I bumped into an old friend in the street near ..... Trafalgar Square by ..... chance, so we stopped to have ..... rest.
8. Honestly, I once slipped near ..... Mount Fuji and ended up in ..... hospital for two days. I must say the take ..... good care of ..... sick there.
9. ..... Rocky Mountains are great for ..... relaxation, but if you hike day after ..... day, remember that even ..... strong get exhausted.
10. Sometimes I listen to ..... radio and imagine sailing across ..... Pacific Ocean at ..... night.
11. ..... Volga flows into ..... Caspian Sea. Generally speaking, it's a quiet river, but in ..... past it was full of trading ships.
12. I learned that poem by ..... heart in ..... morning while walking through ..... Hyde Park.
13. I saw different people in ..... distance: nowadays both ..... poor and ..... rich can use this park.
14. I accidentally booked a flight to ..... Dublin instead of Belfast, but in ..... end I had ..... really good time.
15. If you want to do ..... research on volcanoes, go to ..... cinema — there's a documentary about ..... Hawaiian islands on right now.
16. Trying to sail through ..... English Channel on a small boat is completely out of ..... question. On ..... one hand, it's dangerous, on ..... other hand, it's illegal.
17. ..... Sahara Desert: not everyone has ..... same opinion about it. Some people have ..... great time there, others just get ..... headache from the sun.
18. Every morning I take ..... look at ..... Mediterranean Sea, scanning from left to ..... right, from my hotel balcony in ..... Naples.
19. I felt a bit under ..... weather by ..... seaside in ..... Brighton because I forgot my hat.
20. ..... Thames goes right through London. In the old days, people travelled by ..... boat along it from ..... east to west when the weather was nice.
21. Just for ..... fun, we decided to play ..... chess on the ferry across ..... Lake Geneva - but we had to play holding hands because the boat was rocking so much.
22. Making ..... friends in ..... countryside of Italy is easy if you live near ..... Lake Como. You just have to pay ..... attention to what people say.
23. I was ..... only child, so I learned to keep in ..... mind other people's feelings, especially when I'm travelling in a group of strangers.
24. Doing someone ..... favour is easy, but when you're in ..... trouble, not everyone helps. I found that while travelling across ..... Western Europe when I lost my wallet.
25. For ..... ages, I wanted to lend ..... hand to ..... poor in Mumbai. Last year I finally did.
26. Once ..... year, I take ..... bath in the hot springs in ..... Central Iceland. It's such ..... pleasure.
27. It's ..... shame I had ..... sore throat during my trip to ..... UK. I had to go to ..... doctor's.
28. If you want to be ..... success as a tour guide in ..... Paris, you need to have ..... look at every monument in ..... detail.
29. It''s so nice to go for ..... walk along ..... Seine at ..... sunset. The light is beautiful.
30. Even so, I'd rather go to ..... theatre in ..... West End than watch a film at ..... home.

LIVEWORKSHEETS