

VOCABULARY Storytelling

 1 Complete the puzzle. Use the clues below.

Across

2. a genre of literature; not based on real people or facts
4. very old
5. a traditional story about the early history of people
6. a diary

Down

1. the events of a story
3. a person in a book, film or play

 2 Replace the words in bold with the adjectives below.

thrilling • imaginary • ordinary • amusing
awful • suitable • incredible • unimportant

1. We read some funny stories.
2. I thought the play was terrible. I didn't enjoy it at all.
3. In fantasy books, the characters and places are not real.
4. Graphic novels are amazing. The illustrations make the story come alive.
5. The main characters are two typical teenagers.
6. This novel is appropriate for children and adults.
7. These details are not essential for the understanding of the plot.
8. I couldn't stop reading this exciting book!

 .. 3 Complete the words in the sentences.

1. The s _____ t _____ of The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes is late 19th-century London.
2. A l _____ g _____ is a famous story from the past.
3. William Shakespeare wrote plays and he was also a p _____ t _____.
4. Cinderella is a famous f _____ r _____ t _____.
5. According to Greek m _____ s, Hercules was half man and half god.

 ... 4 Write six sentences with the words below. Use one word from A and one word from B in each sentence.

A

incredible	amusing
unimportant	ancient
thrilling	awful

B

plot	fairy tale
myth	poet
character	legend

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

LANGUAGE Relative pronouns

 5 Choose the correct answers. Then tick (✓) the sentences that are true for you.

1. I prefer reading stories which / where / who are based on true events.
2. My favourite characters in books are people who / whose / that personalities are similar to mine.
3. The weekend is the time which / when / where I read most.
4. My bedroom is the place whose / that / where I prefer to read.
5. I only read books that / when / whose have got interesting pictures on the cover.
6. I haven't got many friends which / where / who frequently read books.