Our School day

Read the story and underline each sentence with a verb to be

My name is Ana, and I am a student in sixth grade.

Today, I am happy because it is my birthday.

My best friend Carlos is excited too. He is proud because he is the leader of our soccer team.

Our teacher, Miss López, is kind and patient. She is happy because we are working together in class.

Some students are nervous because there is a math exam.

Luis is worried, but his friend María is calm. She says, "Don't worry, you are smart."

Luis smiles and says, "Thank you, María. You are a good friend."

At recess, everyone is outside. The playground is full of laughter.

Some students are tired after running, but others are energetic.

Ana says, "I am hungry, but I am also excited because my mom will bring a cake."

In the afternoon, the class prepares a surprise.

When Ana enters, all the students shout, "Happy Birthday, Ana!"

Ana is surprised and very proud of her classmates.

She says, "You are the best friends. I am so happy today."

The day ends with smiles. The students are tired, but they are also proud because they are kind, respectful, and united.
