

VOCABULARY Adjectives

1 Look at the pictures and choose the correct answers.

- John is feeling predictable / relaxed.
- Anna's room is sensitive / messy.
- Danny is cheerful / careless today.
- Jill feels anxious / courageous right now.
- Frank is very charming / efficient.
- Maya's big brother is sometimes nasty / skilful to her.
- Tommy is very proud / truthful.
- Tracy is wearing a sensible / ridiculous outfit right now.

2 Complete the adjectives according to the clues.

- tidy: n s
- honest: t f
- brave: c g
- positive about the future: h p
- very interested in something: c s
- does tasks effectively: e n
- attractive, friendly: p s

3 Complete the sentences with the words below.
sensible • predictable • careless • sensitive • skilful

- The boys were when they crossed the road without looking.
- Suzie made a decision when she stayed in to study for an exam.
- She's very to other people's feelings.
- The story was because the plot was similar to many other stories.
- The pianist played beautifully.

4 Complete the sentences in a logical way. Pay attention to the words in bold.

- Kim felt proud because
- I felt anxious when
- The firefighters were courageous when
- It was sensible of you to
- The skilful artist

LANGUAGE Defining relative clauses

5 Choose the correct relative pronoun in A. Then match A to B to form sentences with defining relative clauses.

A

- In books, I don't like characters who / where
- Tom's Books is the shop where / when
- Let me show you a poem who / that
- JRR Tolkien is a writer which / whose
- The 1700s was a time when / whose

B

- I buy most of my books.
- name is known all over the world.
- I wrote last week.
- are always predictable.
- many people didn't know how to read books.