Part A: Mixed Instructions:
Complete the sentences using the word in parentheses.
You may change the form (adjective → adverb) if necessary.
Use more/less with adverbs or comparative if necessary
Add a degree expression when appropriate:
much / a lot / a little / slightly,

Pad Thai is _____ (spicy) than carbonara.

- A street vendor serves food _____ (quick) than a fine dining waiter.
- Artisan bread is _____ (good) than supermarket bread.
- a beginner cuts fish _____ (precise) than a sushi chef
- Dark chocolate is _____ (sweet) than milk chocolate.
- Home cooks follow recipes _____ (close) than professional chefs.
- Greek salad is _____ (healthy) than Caesar salad.
- A professional kitchen operates _____ (efficient) than a home kitchen.
- Street tacos are _____ (cheap) than gourmet tacos.
- A trained chef handles knives _____ (safe) than a student.
- Japanese curry is _____ (spicy) than Thai curry.
- Fast food restaurants serve customers _____ (quick) than traditional restaurants.

Part B : Rewrite using:

- not as...as
- OR more or less the same

10. Sushi is healthier than fried chicken. (healthy)
    Fried chicken _____
11. Italian pasta and Asian noodles are very similar.
    Italian pasta and Asian noodles _____
12. Gelato is less creamy than ice cream. (creamy)
    Gelato _____
13. Mexican street food and Thai street food are very similar.
    Mexican street food and Thai street food _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS