

Lycée Jean Moulin -Draguignan

Name:-----

Year:2026

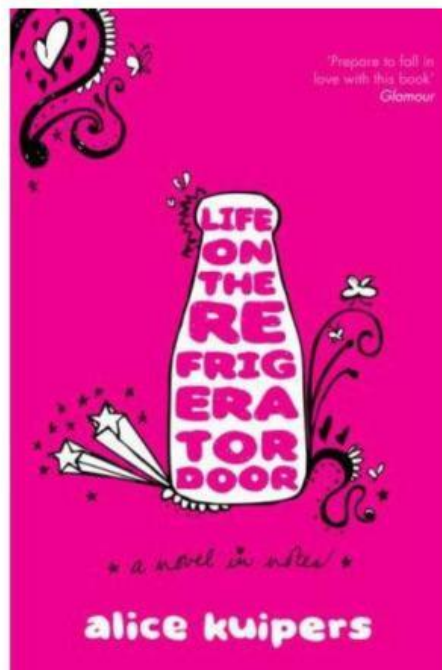

Reading a book for pleasure and talking about it in class...
I hope you enjoyed it and you will read it again in a few years and who knows, maybe ask your children to read it too.

M.W.

READING WORKSHEET

Life on the refrigerator door by Alice Kuipers

MACMILLAN

CONTENTS

1°INTRODUCE THE BOOK

2°GIVE YOUR OPINION

3°HOW DID YOU READ A BOOK?

4°DETAILED UNDERSTANDING

5°CONCLUSION

1° INTRODUCE THE BOOK

1° Describe the cover of the book (colour-illustrations-quote-subtitle)

2° Justify the title

3° Narrator, Main characters and their relationships

4° Side characters

5° Sum up the story

6° Why is the book so original?

7° So what can't you find in the book?

2° GIVE YOUR OPINION

1° What did you like in the book?

2° Quote the parts you liked best (give the pages' numbers)

3° What didn't you like?

4° Why?

3° HOW DID YOU READ THE BOOK?

1°How long did it take you to read the book?

2°Did you use the dictionary? Almost never – sometimes – often – all the time

3°Did you have to read several times the same page to understand it?

4° DETAILED UNDERSTANDING

1° More information about the characters

Narrator and other characters (relationship)	Name	Age	Job or main activities	Likes	Dislikes

2° What happens at the turning point of the book? What is the major event? When does it happen? (what page?)

3° Describe the relationships between the two main characters BEFORE this turning point

4° Describe their relationships AFTER

5° Quote a part where the narrator feels SORRY or ASHAMED and pick up some expressions showing her feelings

6° Quote a part where the narrator feels HAPPY and pick up some expressions showing her feelings

7° Quote a part where the narrator feels ANGRY and pick up some expressions showing her feelings

8° Quote a part where the narrator feels WORRIED and pick up some expressions showing her feelings

9° Quote a part where the narrator feels SAD and pick up some expressions showing her feelings

10°Some notes are long, some are short, some are important messages, some are just shopping lists... Give an example of each (page and/or summary)

Important note: -----

Unimportant or common note:: -----

11°Find 10 words or expressions that you often find in the book

12°Make a list of the words you needed to check in the dictionary to understand the story

5° CONCLUSION

Now you have read this book, do you think you have to understand all the words to be able to understand the story? yes no

Are you ready to read another book? Not at all why not yes for sure

This book made me cry and proved me once more that it is important to take time to talk to the ones you love and tell your feelings.

Don't use a post-it just as a shopping list or just to say what time you'll be home.

M.D.

