NAME: _____ DATE: _____

FUTURE SIMPLE "WILL"

The future simple tense with "will" is used to talk about spontaneous decisions, promises, or predictions.

Affirmative:
Subject + will + verb (base form).

Negative:
Subject + won't (will not) + verb (base form).

Question:
Will + Subject + verb (base form) + ?

Examples

Affirmative:
Sarah will cook dinner for us.

Examples

Negative:
Sarah won't cook dinner for us.

Examples

Question:
Will Sarah cook dinner for us.

Choose the correct option to complete the sentence in the Future Simple.

1. I am sure that my sister _____ her exams next moth.

A) will passing B) will pass C) passes D) will to pass

2. My parents _____ to the party tonight because they are very tired.

A) will go B) won't go C) doesn't go D) will not going

3. _____ your best friend _____ you with your homework later?

A) Do / help B) Is / help C) Will / help D) Will / helps

4. I think it _____ sunny tomorrow, so let's go to the beach.

A) will be B) will C) is being D) be

5. Don't worry, Peter _____ tell anyone your secret.

A) won't B) will not to C) doesn't D) isn't

6. Where _____ we _____ for our next summer holiday?

A) will / staying B) do / stay C) will / stay D) will / stays

7. My uncle _____ a new car next year if he saves enough money.

A) will buy IB) buys C) will buying D) will to buy

8. I'm hungry! I think I _____ a sandwich for lunch.

A) will make B) make C) will making D) am make

9. _____ Sarah _____ us at the train station at 5:00 PM?

A) Does / meet B) Will / meet C) Is / meeting D) Will / meets

10. We _____ have time to watch the movie because it is very late.

A) will B) won't C) not will D) don't

LIVEWORKSHEETS