

Listening 1

Listen to an interview with a scientist called Anna Millward, who is an expert on fish.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

1. Anna first became interested in fish when
A she saw some in a zoo.
B she read about some in a book.
C she studied some at school.
2. Why did Anna give up the idea of becoming a vet?
A Her interest in animals changed.
B The training course was too long for her.
C Seeing sick animals made her feel bad.
3. What is the main aim of Anna's research?
A to develop new ways of protecting fish
B to discover new types of fish
C to find out about where fish live
4. What part of her job does Anna find most difficult?
A getting used to conditions in different countries
B communicating with a wide range of people
C spending a lot of time working in a laboratory
5. Why is Anna keen to talk to fishermen?
A to use their knowledge of fish for her research
B to persuade them to catch fish that she wants to study
C to make them aware that some fish are disappearing
6. Anna says we should
A reduce the amount of fish we eat.
B only eat fish caught near to where we live.
C remember the benefits of eating fish.

Listening 2

I. Match the words to the meanings.

1. deadline	A organise or control something
2. manage	B a time by which something must be done
3. schedule	C a list of dates and times that shows when things will happen

II. Listen to the conversations. Answer the questions what are Sebastian and Nicola's problems:

- 1 Who are they asking for advice?
- 2 Do you agree with the advice?

III. Listen again. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

Conversation 1

Sebastian has to finish some work by a specific time.

1. Sarah suggests that Sebastian talks to his boss.

2. Sebastian doesn't have a good relationship with his boss.
3. Sarah thinks Sebastian's boss won't understand his situation.

Conversation 2

1. Nicola is not very good at planning her working day.
 2. Nicola writes reminders on bits of paper to try to improve things.
 3. Amy thinks Nicola is successful in managing her time
 4. Amy says she can help Nicola a few days a week.
- IV. Listen again. How did the people say the following.
1. I have a lot of work that haven't completed yet.
 2. give you more time to complete the work
 3. happy to give you support
 4. I'm not getting any better.
 5. pay attention to something at the latest time possible
 6. My week is filled with a lot of work.