➤ READING

E. Look at the picture. Who are those people? What do you think they do?

ALMOST THE REAL THING!

There are lots of tribute bands in Japan. They sing songs by famous bands, such as the Beatles and the Rolling Stones. They dress like them and sometimes look like them, too.

The Parrots are one of the most popular Beatles tribute bands. They often play at Abbey Road Live House, a small music club in Roppongi, Tokyo. The Parrots don't speak English very well, but they know two hundred Beatles songs. Singer Mamori Yoshii has a very good Liverpool accent.

In 2012, they were onstage in Manchester, England with a famous British band called the Arctic Monkeys. In 2013, the Parrots were onstage in Tokyo with Paul McCartney at a surprise birthday party for his wife Nancy Shevell. McCartney was in Japan to promote his album New. The Parrots were also the first Asian band to play at a Beatles' convention in the UK. Not bad for a tribute band!
