HI ELLA!

It's been ages since we spoke! I miss you! I'm writing to tell you about my trip to Barcelona. It was amazing!

Firstly, the accommodation was great. I stayed in a small hotel near the city centre. I shared a double room with my sister, but it was comfortable. We even had a kettle, a hairdryer, and a big screen TV with great Wi-Fi so we could keep up with our favourite TV shows. The hotel didn't have a swimming pool or a game room, but it was near many cool places, and the staff was very helpful. They were generous and gave us free postcards as souvenirs and recommended a sightseeing tour where we saw beautiful colourful buildings designed by Antoni Gaudí.

We visited attractions like the Sagrada Familia. We walked around a lot and ate delicious food at a local market, Mercat de la Boqueria, where we took a class on how to make paella. One day, we also visited the amusement park 'Parque de Atracciones del Tibidabo' on Tibidabo Mountain. You would love it!

Lastly, we did some shopping. I brought some cool hats, bags, and refrigerator magnets for my grandparents and for you as well. I will give them to you when we see each other.

Barcelona is a cool place to visit. If you visit Catalonia, make sure you come here. How are you doing? Write back soon and tell me about your holiday.

All the best,
Nathan
