

Listening Ex. > Teenage Years

A. Listen to a short interview to a man talking about his teenage years. Find the mistake(s) in each sentence and rewrite it correctly on the line. There is ONE EXAMPLE for you.

Part 1

Example: The man was born in 1968.

Correction: The man was born in 1948.

- It was good to be a teenager with all the 70's music.

Correction: (1) _____

Part 2

- He finished school when he was 16.

Correction: (2) _____

- He learned much at school; he was sad to leave it.

Correction: (3) _____

Part 3

- He worked in a TV factory.

Correction: (4) _____

- When he was 18, he worked in a small department store.

Correction: (5) _____

Part 4

- He went to sing every week.

Correction: (6) _____

- He listened to the top groups and rented their records.

Correction: (7) _____

- His friends came to his house and danced a lot of music.

Correction: (8) _____

Part 5

- It was a hard time to be young; he had money and spent it.

Correction: (9) _____

- Looking back, he did not have a bad education.

Correction: (10) _____

- He did not have morning classes; he had too little fun.

Correction: (11) _____

