

2. Circle A, B, C, or D to indicate the sentence that is closest in meaning to each of the following questions.

Question 1: The novel received critical acclaim. It was published last year.

- A. The novel which it was published last year received critical acclaim.
- B. The novel who received critical acclaim was published last year.
- C. The novel which received critical acclaim was published last year.
- D. The novel received critical acclaim which was published last year.

Question 2: The scientist discovered a new species. She won a prestigious award.

- A. The scientist who she won a prestigious award discovered a new species.
- B. The scientist which discovered a new species, won a prestigious award.
- C. The scientist who discovered a new species won a prestigious award.
- D. The scientist discovered a new species, which she won a prestigious award.

Question 3: The documentary explores climate change. It was nominated for an Oscar.

- A. The documentary explores climate change was nominated for an Oscar.
- B. The documentary which was nominated for an Oscar explores climate change.
- C. The documentary that explores climate change, which was nominated for an Oscar.
- D. The documentary who explores climate change was nominated for an Oscar.

Question 4: The chef prepared a special menu. It features seasonal ingredients.

- A. The chef, who features seasonal ingredients, prepared a special menu.
- B. The chef prepared a special menu which features seasonal ingredients.
- C. The chef, which prepared a special menu, features seasonal ingredients.
- D. The chef prepared a special menu that features seasonal ingredients.

Question 5: The theories were groundbreaking. They changed the field of psychology.

- A. The theories which changed the field of psychology were groundbreaking.
- B. The theories who changed the field of psychology were groundbreaking.
- C. The theories which they were groundbreaking changed the field of psychology.
- D. The theories, changed the field of psychology, were groundbreaking.