

Passive Voice

Present simple

I >> by me	We >> by us
	You >> by you
He >> by him She >> by her It >> by it	They >> by them

He gives a speech. >> The speech is given by him.

She bakes cakes. >> The cakes are baked by her.

I eat chocolate. >> The chocolate is eaten by me.

My brother cuts the tree. >> The tree is cut by him.

We push the door. >> The door is pushed by us.

They address the pupils. >> The pupils are addressed by them.

Do the exercises

Exercise I.

Choose the correct pronoun.

You make a fire. >> The fire is made by _____.

She translates the text. >> The text is translated by _____.

Tom drives the car. >> The car is driven by _____.

They learn the rules. >> The rules are learned by _____.

My sister washes the dishes. >> The dishes are washed by _____.

We push the door. >> The door is pushed by _____.

The students write a test. >> The test is written by _____.

My brother and I paint the walls. >> The walls are painted by _____.

Alice teaches the lesson. >> The lesson is taught by _____.

Bill and Tom do the project. >> The project is done by _____.

I do the exercises. >> The exercises are done by _____.

It changes the result. >> The result is changed by _____.

Exercise II.

Choose the correct options and fill in the correct verbs to complete the sentences.

fixed visited sold explained written watched passed

The poems _____ by this poet.

The car _____ by a mechanic.

The exams _____ by the students.

These goods _____ by shops and supermarkets.

That film _____ by teenagers.

Grandparents _____ by their grandchildren.

New grammar rule _____ by the teacher.

Exercise III.

Make up the sentences from the words.

fixed My the mechanic. is by car food by The cooked mum. is the are The by washed daughter. dishes

Tom. is His broken bike by in are The yellow. walls painted many These are into novels languages. translated new explained The by is our topic teacher.

decorated Her to her according instructions. is room

Exercise IV.