1. Choose the correct answer.

1. A person who is always there for you is
   a) generous b) dependable c) sociable
2. If you try to make someone feel happier, you
   a) give support b) cheer somebody up c) take an interest
3. When people like the same activities, they
   a) get on well b) are close friends c) are into the same things
4. Someone who enjoys being with people is
   a) extrovert b) introvert c) acquaintance
5. If you don't lie, you
   a) show respect b) make friends c) tell the truth

2. Use the words from the wordbox:

Word box: be kind, make friends, good listener, show loyalty, acquaintance, generous, get on well

1. It's easy for her to _____ because she is very friendly.
2. He always helps others – he is very _____.
3. You should _____ and help people when they need you.
4. They _____ because they never argue.
5. She isn't my close friend, just an _____.
6. A _____ listens carefully and understands others.
7. It's important to _____ to your friends.

3. Complete the sentences. The first letter is given.

1. Always t_____ the truth, even if it's difficult.
2. She likes to t_____ an interest in other people's problems.
3. We h_____ the same sense of humour, so we laugh a lot together.
4. Try to c_____ somebody up if they feel sad.
5. He is an i_____, so he prefers being alone.
6. She is very s_____ and loves meeting new people.
7. It's important to s_____ respect to everyone.

4. Match the words with their definitions.

1. dependable	a) someone who prefers being alone
2. extrovert	b) someone you can trust
3. introvert	c) people who know each other very well
4. close friends	d) to help someone emotionally
5. give support	e) someone who enjoys being with others
6. be honest	f) to always tell the truth

LIVEWORKSHEETS