E31209 Unit1/2

Expressing opinions, likes, and dislikes

Conversation: Getting acquainted

Lauren: Hi—you must be Sarah. I can tell from your picture. I'm Lauren. Finally we meet! So we're going to be roomies this semester!

Sarah: Yes, I recognize you from your photo, too! I'm so glad to meet you in person—and I see from your T-shirt that you like baseball. I'm a big fan, too!

Lauren: Well, the T-shirt was a going-away present from my brother, who's a baseball player. Look on the back—it has a photo of all the players on his team. They actually won the city championship this summer.

Sarah: That's awesome. I tell you, I'm not very athletic, but I love to watch baseball, even if it's a Little League game. You could say I'm a professional spectator. What about you, do you play a sport?

Lauren: Yes, I play tennis. As a matter of fact, I have a scholarship, and I'm going to play for the university. Now tell me, what else do you like to do?

Sarah: Well—what I like to do best is dance. I'm studying classical ballet, but I also like to dance to popular music.

Lauren: Cool. We have a lot in common. I like to dance, too. Think you'll be up for checking out the local clubs this weekend?

Sarah: Oh, yeah. And the restaurants, too. Speaking of which—are you hungry? I'd love to grab a bite before it gets too late. I'm starving!

Lauren: Are you kidding me? I'm always up for going out! How about trying the place up the street? I'm kind of hungry for a good hamburger.

Later:

Sarah: Lauren, what do you think of our room?

Lauren: To be honest with you, I really can't stand that dark color on the walls. It's, like, really depressing. I prefer light colors. Plus, I'd like to change the rug and the bedspreads. Do you like them?

Sarah: No, I agree with you. They're horrible. With a couple of coats of paint and a few small changes, we'll make this room comfortable and cozy. Everybody will want to hang out here.

Lauren: Man, I'm so relieved! I think we're really going to get along. I'm going to call my mom right now and tell her how cool my new roomie is.

What kind of ice cream do you like? I like vanilla. My sister likes chocolate.

What do you like to do? asks what activities a person enjoys.

What do you like to do on weekends? I like to relax and go out with friends.

Would you like . . . ? is a polite way of asking what someone wants.

What would you like for your birthday? I would like a big party.

What would you like to do today? I would like to go to the movies with you.

I'm/she's/he's/etc. like . . . is often inserted into a conversation to emphasize what someone is currently feeling or thinking. This is especially common among young people.

I'm like really mad at him.

Love, when it refers to a person or people, indicates deep affection. When love begins, there is often a feeling of great excitement, called being in love.

Her husband loves her, but she is no longer in love with him.

Love, when it refers to a thing, indicates a thing or an activity that a person finds very pleasing.

Do you like ice cream? Yes, I love it!/No, I don't like it.

Do you like to go shopping? Yes, I love it!/No, I don't like to.

Would you like to dance? I'd love to!/I'm sorry; I promised someone else.

What do you think of . . . ?

What do you think of this? is a way of asking someone's opinion of something.

What do you think of the new teacher? She's strict, but I think she's great. I like her.

Are you kidding me?

Are you kidding me? is an expression that indicates that something is so true—or untrue—that it doesn't need to be said.

Do you like to dance? Are you kidding me? I'd rather dance than eat!

Would you like to go shopping tomorrow? Are you kidding me? I have to study!

Up for

To be up for something means to want to do it.

Are you up for going to the movies with us? Yes, I'd love to go.

I'm not really up for doing anything tonight.

I'm too tired.

Alternative expressions are to feel like doing something or to be in the mood for (doing) something.

Do you feel like going to a museum? No, I'm not in the mood for (going to) a museum today.

Stand

To stand means to tolerate/to accept.

It's pretty hot today, but I can stand it.

He went home because he couldn't stand the hot sun.

Can't stand often means to not like.

He says he can't stand his little sister, but we know it's not true.

Big fan

To (not) be a (big) fan indicates that someone does or does not like something.

I like movies, but I'm not a big fan of science fiction.

Other ways of indicating something one likes include awesome/cool/fantastic/great/amazing.

College is awesome. My professors are cool, the classes are fantastic, the nightlife is great, and my friends are amazing.

These words are interchangeable—all of them work in the positions of the others.

College is great/fantastic/cool/amazing. My professors are awesome/fantastic/amazing, the classes are awesome/cool/great/amazing, the nightlife is awesome/cool/fantastic/amazing, and my friends are awesome/cool/fantastic/great.

Going-away present

A going-away present is a gift customarily given to someone who is leaving for an extended period, perhaps to go to college, to move to another area, or to work in another place.

They gave me a picture of everyone in the office as a going-away present when I left for my new job.

Tell is used in a number of expressions. It is followed by an object pronoun (me/you/her/him/us/them), the name of a person, or a word that refers to a person or people (friend(s), parent(s), etc.).

16 Practice Makes Perfect English Conversation

Tell me is a way of asking someone to relate information.

Call me and tell me about your classes.

After tell me, the subject-verb order of a question using the verb be is reversed.

Who is she? Tell me who she is.

What are you doing? Tell me what you are doing.

With all other verbs, the do/does is dropped, and the verb is conjugated normally.

What do you do? Tell me what you do.

Where do they go? Tell me where they go.

When does he get in? Tell me when he gets in.

Don't tell me indicates that you fear a certain answer.

Don't tell me you're sick! (I'm afraid you're sick!)

I'm going to apply to the state university. Speaking of which, did you know Melissa is going there?

Our state representative is up for reelection. Speaking of which, I heard she is coming to speak at our school next week.

Finally indicates relief that something long awaited has happened. It goes after a conjugated verb.

I've been looking for my keys all day, and I've finally found them.

An expression with the same meaning is at last, which goes at the beginning or end of the clause.

At last I've found them!

I've found them at last!

So has many different uses. In the example conversation it introduces information that both people already know.

So this is your new car. Will you take me for a ride?

So you're getting married! Congratulations!

Actually/as a matter of fact

Actually and as a matter of fact often have the same function. They have many different uses. In the example conversation they indicate that a fact is a little surprising but of interest to the other person.

So you're an Arabic teacher! I actually studied Arabic in college.

I want you to meet my sister. As a matter of fact, she'll be here in a few minutes.

Even if

Even if can introduce a fact that seems a little hard to believe.

I'm going to finish this paper even if I have to work on it all night.

Plus

Plus adds additional information that reinforces an opinion or argument.

I like him. He's really nice. Plus, he's good-looking.

To be honest with you

The phrase to be honest with you introduces a statement that you think a person might not want to hear.

Thank you for inviting me to the movies, but to be honest with you, I'm not really a big fan of horror movies.<sup>18</sup> Practice Makes Perfect English Conversation
