

Part B – Combine the Sentences

Instructions:

Combine each pair of sentences into ONE sentence using a subordinating conjunction.

- Use a comma where needed

1. Modern cookstoves are safer.
They are more expensive.

Version A:

Version B:

2. People cook indoors using open fires.
Health risks increase.

Version A:

Version B:

3. Clean cookstoves are introduced.
Air quality improves.

Version A:

Version B:

4. Traditional cooking methods are common.
They are dangerous.

Version A:

Version B:

5. Families use clean fuel.
Children's health improves.

Version A:

Version B:

6. Some families prefer gas cookers.
Others rely on wood-burning stoves.

Version A:

Version B:
