✦ Senses Sorting Challenge

1. Extract the Senses 🤖

Advanced readers don't just see a story; they hear and smell it too! Read the descriptive paragraph below.

Your Challenge: Find the specific words and phrases the author uses to create a "movie in your mind." Instead of using a word bank, extract the sensory words directly from the text and sort them into the correct categories in the table.

"The rusty hinges creaked loudly as I pushed open the heavy wooden door to the abandoned bakery. Instantly, the sweet aroma of old vanilla and dusty cinnamon filled my nose. Faded pink wallpaper peeled off the walls in long, jagged strips. Outside, the howling wind whipped against the cracked glass, but inside, the musty scent of damp wood made me want to sneeze."
