

Activity 2

Ahmed is learning about computer networks.

Explain computer networks and their uses.

Use the words to fill in the blank spaces.

global

services

network

A computer is a group of computers and/or devices that are connected with each other for the purpose of communicating data electronically. The most well-known network in the world is the Internet. The Internet is a network of networks that connects computer and devices worldwide.